REVIEW LEARNING INTENTION

We are learning to read with expression and fluency using punctuation to understand how to read. Through the scripts we act out, we are practicing our skills in reading as we speak.

REVIEW OUR LOOK FORS

Expression - Are you reading with expression to engage your audience?

Fluency - Are you reading to sound like how you speak?

Eye-contact - Are you looking up while you read?

Volume - Can everyone hear you read?

Actions - Are you acting out the script?

GET YOUR SCRIPTS

Scripts and groups will be chosen and assigned by your teacher. It is time to get your script and get in your group.

DECIDE YOUR ROLES

Decide your roles in your group and highlight your parts in the script. Once you've highlighted your role, read through the script to yourself.

PRACTICE AS A GROUP

Practice your script as a group. Decide your actions and help each other by giving feedback to achieve doing the 'look fors'.

PERFORMANCE TIME!

Perform your script to the class and get feedback
OR

Be a respectful audience member and give feedback

SELF REFLECTION

Once you've performed, stick your script in your book and complete your self reflection. Write:

One thing you did well

One thing you'd like to continue to work on

PUT YOUR BOOK AWAY

Put your book away and return to being an audience member pack up from readers theatre.
